

MYRA MAZICK TOLINO

On August 14, 2022, Myra Mazick Tolino died unexpectedly in Pittsburgh, PA at 75 years of age. Myra is survived by her husband, Vince; children, Cara (Jay Collins) Tolino, and Candace (Adam) Rothberg; brother-in-law, Carl David Tolino (Tina Reft) and grandchildren, Tannyn and Parker Tolino Anderson and Aiden and Asher Rothberg. She was preceded in death by her parents, Matt and Emma Mazick; brother, Jim, sister-in-law, Carol Mazick; and mother and father-in-law, Carl and Joanne Tolino. She will be missed by loving nieces, nephews and close lifelong friends.

Myra was born in Brownsville, PA and raised in California, PA where she graduated from high school and college. She went on to receive several graduate degrees from the University of Pittsburgh and worked for 40 years in the Pittsburgh Public Schools as a dedicated and beloved teacher, focusing on preschool children.

As a friend to many and a very close friend to a special group of women from all aspects of her life, Myra found friendship to be of the highest value. Her close circle of friends provided grounding and sustenance to enrich her life, and she, in turn, enriched theirs.

Although her children and grandchildren lived distances from her home, she maintained close connections to support and show love to their families. In addition to friendship, family was central to her being. Her life was full; her love enveloping those closest to her. Myra gave love and got love. She will be missed.
