

JORDAN COYNER

Father's Day remains somber without you here! The emptiness in not hearing your voice or your laugh that always filled our hearts with joy continues and your absence is felt even more with every passing day! We miss everything about you as that gaping hole in our hearts remains knowing you were taken far too soon!

The void of you not being with us on all occasions carries on as everyday remains a struggle without you! We continue clinging to the comfort in our memories until we are together again.

We feel you watching over us as our eternal angel and we appreciate all the "23's" that come our way.

Hope you have reconnected with Pappy and that you are sharing your time in Peace

We Love you endlessly and miss you even more,
Mom, Dad, Shane, Kali, Grandma, Aunt Lora & Uncle Char
