

We're Only Human

Yes indeed we make mistakes
And feel so stupid inside
And even at the point of embarrassment
We just wanna go run
and hide

But to make ourselves
feel better
We put it on our "not to do list"
And to feel even better than that We just surmise it was something we missed

But it's nothing to be ashamed of
In fact a learning process
we find Where we get back on our feet
And just try and do better
next time
