

JANET (SHOTWELL) HUNT

Born on Christmas Day, December 25, 1923, Janet Hunt (nee Shotwell) was a gift to all who knew her. She passed away on July 16, 2023 at age 99. Janet was raised in Franklin, NJ, where she graduated from Franklin High School. She pursued higher education at Bucknell University, where she earned degrees in Psychology and English. It was during her college years that she met

Marshal Hunt Jr. who would become her husband. Marshal's work would take them from Evansville, PA to Hammond, IN; Norwalk, CT; Pittsburgh, PA; Waco, TX; Allentown, PA; and York, PA. Janet's final years were spent at Sunrise of McCandless in Pittsburgh, PA. Her hobbies included singing in the church choir, bowling, volleyball, Pinochle, and volunteering at libraries and meal assistance programs, among various other activities. Janet was fond of cardinals and developed quite a collection of cardinal-themed items over the years. Her departure from this life was peaceful, and she joins her husband of 71 years, Marshal; her siblings, Doris and Fred; her parents Fred C. and Nettie Rae (nee Roberson); her son-in-law Herbert A. Perry; and extended family, for eternal rest. Janet is survived by her four children, Carolyn Hunt (nee Perry), Robert Hunt, Susan Hunt, and Jeffrey (Nancy) Hunt; and two grandchildren, Amanda Hunt and Ryan Hunt. Janet will be laid to rest in a private ceremony with close family members present. The one thing Janet desired most of all was for those she loved and cared about to be happy. In lieu of flowers, her family requests that those who wish to remember her take a moment to recall a happy thought any time a cardinal comes to visit. Arrangements by SIMONS FUNERAL HOME.
