

PHILIP REGIS McMAHON

Born August 22, 1927, in Carnegie, PA., passed on July 16, 2023, at the Actor's Fund Home in Englewood, NJ. Son of the late Philip R. Sr., and Josephine D. McMahon. He is survived by his five children, John of Pittsburgh, PA, Amy (Eric) of Catskill, NY, Michael of New York City, NY Patrick (Karen) of Pittsburgh, PA, and Riley (Natalie) of New York City, NY; five grandchildren, Joseph (Ashley), Hazel, Conor, Erin, and Annabel; and two great-grandchildren, Oliver and Fiona. He was preceded in death by Olympia, his wife of 47 years, who passed in 2003, and Lois, his wife of 17 years, who passed in 2020.

Phil served in the U.S. Army from 1950-52 in Germany. He was employed by Kolene Corp. of Detroit, MI, for 48 years, traveling the world to provide equipment and chemicals to the steel industry. He was a member of the American Iron and Steel Institute and American Society for Metals. He and Olympia, known as Lynne by family and friends, raised their five children in Mt. Lebanon, PA., where they also opened an antique business, McMahon's Make Mine Country. Phil lovingly cared for Lynne for 15 years after she was in an auto accident. After Lynne's passing, Phil met Lois at The Devonshire of Mt. Lebanon where they were married before moving to a nearby apartment, both in their late 80s.

Phil was an active member of the South Hills community and a longtime volunteer at the food bank of St. Winifred's Church of Castle Shannon. He also volunteered at St. Bernard's Church of Mt. Lebanon (now St. Michael the Archangel), where he collected donations through the annual Minuteman Appeal and also worked with Lynne at the annual apple pie bake sale. He was a member of both churches along with St. Pius X Church of Brookline. Phil was a tough cookie with a sweet tooth. He was an avid reader who enjoyed his daily walks through the Mt. Lebanon business district, time with his family and never turned down ice cream or chocolate.
