

JEAN PATTON BRIDGERS

Jean Patton Bridgers, 91, of Mt. Lebanon, PA, passed away Monday, July 10, 2023. Born March 22, 1932, in Homestead, PA, she was the daughter of Col. John Walker Patton and Anna Redman Patton. She is survived by five children and nine grandchildren: Ann Schmidt (husband, Martin Schmidt, sons, Ben and Sam), Susan Bridgers (daughter, Caleigh), H. Clifton Bridgers III (wife, Laura, daughters, Casey, Linda, Megan), Joseph B. Bridgers (wife, Bobbi), and Martha Bridgers (wife, Julie, daughters, Petra, Nola, Tess). Jean Bridgers graduated from Grove City College with studies in history and political science. She was a longtime member and deacon of Southminster Presbyterian Church in Mt. Lebanon.

During her lifetime, she was the founder of the Waynesboro Daycare and Adult Interest Center; owner of a small business specializing in Native American art and jewelry, and a small greeting card company utilizing local artists' work. She was a member of Jaycees, Waynesboro College Club, Zonta, NAWBO, NOW, and the Rotary Club.

Arrangements by BEINHAUER-FRYER, 430 Washington Road, McMurray, PA 15317, 412-221-3800. Memorial contributions may be made in her name to Southminster Presbyterian Church, Mt., Lebanon.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb