Kay, age 91, passed away peacefully at home on July 21, 2023. Beloved wife of Jerry Schweitzer for 21 years. Devoted mother of daughters, Sharon Moretti (John), Sandy Carroll (Dan), and Paulette Perry (Bob). Loving grandmother of Marty Moretti (Mindy), Diane Bayer (Mike), Lynn Neilson (Mike), Emily Livingston (Mikel), Matt Carroll (Emily Timm), and Libby DePalma (Tony). Doting great-grandmother of fourteen. Kay was predeceased by her loving husband of 49 years, Paul J. Nist; her parents, Steve and Katherine Jacmenovich; and her sisters, Mary Hayson, Violet Mamic, and Helen Schweitzer. She is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Kay was born and raised on the North Side of Pittsburgh and graduated from Perry High School. She worked for many years as a teller at Union National Bank and retired as the office manager of The Addison Gibson Foundation. Family came first and foremost in Kay's life. She was a great cook and loved over-feeding her family with delicious meals. She had a wonderful sense of humor and enjoyed traveling, playing cards (in particular, "31" where she would always go for the triple aces), and playing slots at the casino. Lottery tickets were a favorite gift. She will be greatly missed.
