

Until We Meet Again

Life with you was so beautiful You made everything fine and great
Our walks in the park and the movies
Yes you were the perfect date

You cried when I brought you the roses
How we both laughed until it hurt Played board games and even had pillow fights Just like two kids playing in the dirt

We spun the records to our favorite songs
Danced until the sun came up We hugged and kissed for dear life
And then to you I raised the cup

I toasted our lives together Remembering our time back then I then went up to the sky and hollered down
Until we meet again

Rachel Ann Bovier