

My Friend Elias

He works for the Post-Gazette
And where would I be without him
For he takes all the poems that I send Asking to change anything about them

And I tell you that that is professional
And never a thought or a task
And even much more than that He's a person with a lot of class

And so Eli I thank you so much
For the excellent work that you do
And so much more I thank you
For always just being you

Rachel
