

MARY CUOMO

YOUR LOVE WAS EVERYTHING TO US.

With profound sadness and deep appreciation for a life filled with love, we say goodbye to Mary Cicerello Cuomo, who went to heaven on July 25, 2023, at the age of 91, surrounded by her devoted family. Left to cherish the memories are her sons, Mark (Rosanne), David (Nancy), and Joseph (Lori); and her son-in-law, James Mszyco (Lindie); five grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Like a gentle breeze, her presence graced our lives, and now she embarks on a new journey, reunited with Angelo, the love of her life, and her beloved daughter, Annette. We know there is a beautiful heavenly reunion happening right now. Mary's indelible charm and exquisite taste reflected her vibrant spirit. She possessed a natural gift for making others feel cherished, giving her undivided attention to make you feel like the most important person in the world. As a mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, and great-aunt, Mary's devotion knew no bounds. Mary was unmatched in her selfless and sacrificial ways, embodying all it means to be a mother and grandmother. From rocking newborn babies, attending plays and sporting events, and showing up to rearrange your kitchen, Mary was an ever-present support and solace. She took it upon herself to ensure everyone was well-fed. (If you've ever been to Mary's house for dinner, you have food containers in your cupboards from the leftovers she insisted on sending home with you.)

Mary's life epitomized the essence of the verse from Ephesians 4:32, "And be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave you in Christ." Fond memories of Mary will forever linger-her radiant smile, pride in her Sicilian heritage, impeccable style, and the unforgettable gatherings at "the big house on Palmer Road." Mary delighted in Bingo, bocce games, crosswords, visits to the casino, and the contagious laughter of her four great-grandchildren. Mary expressed her wishes to forgo a traditional funeral service, a decision those who knew and cherished her completely understood. As we bid farewell to this earthly chapter, let us remember that; just as the horizon is not the end of the ocean, death is not the end of life's boundless journey. Mary's spirit, like the eternal tides, shall forever remain with Jesus. Nunni - You shaped us and taught us and inspired us and cooked for us and helped us. We will love you forever, and we will take it from here. Instead of flowers, please don't let this be the end of her story - send photos, send stories, send love. Arrangements are private and entrusted to SOXMAN FUNERAL HOMES, LTD.
