

ERMA W. (FERRARO) ADAMSON

Erma W. (Ferraro) Adamson, age 100, died peacefully on Saturday, July 22, 2023. Born on June 3, 1923, to Minnie Torchia and John Ferraro, she grew up in Turtle Creek and was a graduate of Turtle Creek High School. She was the beloved wife of 75 years of the late Charley Adamson. She is survived by three daughters, Carole Tarquinio (Tom), Phyllis Thomson, and Charlene Adamson. Her grandchildren were her heart: Amy Tarquinio (Cory), Bradley Thomson, David Tarquinio (Traci), Jaclyn Thomson Garrido (Steve), and Lee Rathers. She will also be sorely missed by her seven great-grandchildren, Cassi Stovash Lang (Cam), Vincent Ribar (Cassie) Alex Tarquino (Jasmine), Dominic and Dylan Tarquinio, and Crispin and Paxton Garrido; and four great-great-grandchildren. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by her five siblings, Polly Valla, Frank Ferraro, MaryElla Bertolo, Sam Ferraro and most recently Jean (Dolly) Valla. Erma was employed for 11 years by the A&P grocery store in North Versailles and then worked as the church secretary at the Turtle Creek First United Presbyterian Church where she was a member and also served as a deaconess. She is most remembered for her role as the Hillcrest Presbyterian AARP tour leader for many years. As well, she was a Democratic Party Committee woman in Churchill Boro for 30 years, often working the polls. She and Charley raised their family in Turtle Creek and Churchill and in their later years resided at Beatty Pointe Village in Monroeville. In 2018, she moved to Woodside Place and then Woodside Gardens, top floor of the Willows, in Oakmont. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother who loved and supported her family unconditionally. Friends will be received at the JOBE FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY, INC. (MONROEVILLE/PLUM CHAPEL), 445 Beatty Road, Monroeville (412-856-4747) on Sunday, August 6, 2023, from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., where a blessing service will take place at 3:30 p.m. A sincere and grateful thank you to the staff of Woodside Place, The Willows and Bridges Hospice. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Presbyterian Senior Care Foundation, 1215 Hulton Road, Oakmont, PA 15139. www.jobefuneralhome.com.
