

DOROTHY ELIZABETH DAVIDSON

Dorothy Elizabeth Davidson, also known as Betty Davidson, passed away on July 24, 2023, at the age of 96 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She was a strong and loving mother, wife, sister, aunt, and friend who lit up any room she entered and truly cared about everyone around her.

Born on July 20, 1927, Betty was a remarkable woman who loved books and flowers and lived for her family and friends.

Betty is survived by her beloved children, Kim Eisler, Kitty Eisler, Terry Davidson, Glenn Davidson, and Patti Winterholter, and their families. She was preceded in death by her son, George Eisler; her husbands, George Theodore Eisler and Kenneth Davidson; her brother, William Young; her father, William Homer Young; and her mother, Dorothea Radel.

In honor of Betty's memory, contributions can be made to the ALS Association. Your support will help continue the fight against ALS and support those affected by this devastating disease.

Betty Davidson will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Her kindness, strength, wit, and unwavering love will forever be remembered and cherished.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb