

MIKE LUSNAK

Age 92, of Plum Borough, PA passed away on March 23, 2023, joining his wife, Mary. Mike was born on August 3, 1930, in Indiana County, PA to Joseph and Veronica Lusnak. He is survived by his children, Barbara Lusnak (Dave Hayden), Mary Jo Lusnak, (Ron Collins) and Michael Lusnak (Kay Stewart Lusnak), grandchildren Jordan and Michael Lusnak, his sister-in-law Catherine Manoledes and many cherished nieces and nephews.

Mike was proud to have served in the United States Marines in Washington, DC. He was a bricklayer foreman at United States Steel and worked primarily at the Homestead Works. After retiring from USS, Mike worked at Equitable Gas in Pittsburgh part-time. Throughout his working years, Mike built fireplaces, walls, and driveways. He was always available to lend a hand to friends and family on home improvement projects.

Mike and Mary were active members of St John the Baptist Catholic church for over 60 years. Mike was a member of the Universal Moose Lodge where he made many friends and memories. He enjoyed golf, hunting, fishing, and cheering on Pittsburgh's sports teams. Mike lived at Seneca Hills Senior complex in Penn Hills for his last five years where he made many friends with residents and staff. The family wishes to send their deepest appreciation to the staff at Seneca for taking such good care of Mike.

Mike was buried with military honors at Good Shepherd Cemetery. To honor Mike's memory, donations may be made to the Trade Institute of Pittsburgh at tipgh.org or the MS Society at www.nationalmssociety.org. Arrangements made by the FINDLAY C. WYLIE FUNERAL HOME, INC.
