Wakefield; loving mother of Lynetta (Robert) Sokol of Pittsburgh and the late Ronald Wakefield, formerly of Eighty-Four, PA; cherished grandmother of Joy (Peter) Bosetti; great-grandmother of Vincent, and twins, Caleb and Joshua; step-grandmother of Teri Crawford; step-great-grandmother of Leah

Jane, as many people called her, was extremely proud of her granddaughter and great-grandchildren and their accomplishments. She then joined and attended the Brentwood Presbyterian Church until her passing. Mary Jane was an avid reader of Amish fiction and greatly enjoyed watching the birds on the deck. She enjoyed crocheting and crafts of any kind until her hands were crippled with arthritis. She was also a devoted fan of the Game Show Network - she enjoyed them all!
