

ALICE NOURIE

Age 92, of Pittsburgh, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 12, 2023. Beloved wife of the late Thomas O. Nourie. Loving mother of Rhonda M. Judd (the late Barry R. Judd), Andrea McCrum (R. Timothy McCrum), and the late Jeffrey P. Nourie and Steven M. Nourie. Dear grandmother of Nicholas R. Judd (Lauren), Shannon M. Olsheski (Adam), Olivia S. Krolczyk (Stephen), Blake O. Nourie, Megan Gerardi (Michael), Kelsey Roob (Adam), Brian McCrum (Lucy), Colleen DeLaFleur (Cameron) and Shane McCrum (Mary). Great-grandmother of 19 great-grandchildren.

Alice was devoted to her Roman Catholic faith and her family. She was a longtime parishioner of St. Bernard's Church, where she had served as a Eucharistic Minister and Lector. She loved gardening at her Mt. Lebanon residence of nearly 50 years and spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She was an active member of the Republican Women organization and diligently served as a Judge of Elections over many years. After her husband Tom, passed away in 1987, she became active in helping other widows find hope in their grief. A civil servant as well, she volunteered at her local library, was an active member of the Republican Women's organization, and was a Judge of Elections. Her hobbies included gardening, reading, writing, and knitting. She passed along these loves to many of her family members. Her grandchildren remember her teaching them how to knit, and several of them have become writers and gardeners as well.
