

ANDREW J. PATAKY, JR.

Born January 15, 1926, sadly passed away on August 12, 2023. Mr. Pataky was an esteemed alumnus of Turtle Creek High School and the Miami Beach Maritime Training Center. His distinguished career included a dedicated service as a mailman until his retirement, demonstrating his enduring commitment to his local community.

Andrew honorably served his country in the 365th bomber, Pacific Theater, bravely undertaking 35 bombing missions over the Pacific. His bravery, commitment, and dedication to his country were truly remarkable.

Even though he is no longer with us, his spirit will continue to inspire and guide us.
