Mimi's early years were spent between the Pittsburgh area, Durham, North Carolina and Manhattan, Kansas. Eventually settling in Houston, Texas, in 1946, where she completed her schooling before heading to Pine Manor College, in Wellesley, Massachusetts, where she obtained an Associates of Arts degree. She married her husband, Bill, of 60, years in 1957 and they began their married life stationed in Kodiak Island, Alaska, for two years, where Bill served in the Coast Guard.

The next eight years were spent between Texas, Ohio, and Michigan. before returning to Pittsburgh for the next seven years with a family of their own, three boys and a girl. Supporting her husband's desire to attend bible college and in turn become an ordained minister, the family then moved to South Carolina. In the years following his graduation, Mimi and her family would move approximately eight more times before she and her husband relocated back to Pittsburgh in 2011, where they spent their remaining years.

While Mimi's feet were never planted long in one location due to her father's and later her husband's career, she remained planted in her faith, her love for her family and a desire to see the beauty in people. Her smile was contagious and her spirit adventurous, until her diagnosis of ALS last year. Mimi was a dedicated wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend to many. During the last several months of her life, it was not uncommon for Mimi to be ministering to those who came to care and minister to her. Touching the hearts of everyone who spent time with her.

If you had the pleasure of knowing Mimi, please join her family for a celebration of her life Saturday, August 26, 2023 at Christ Church Fox Chapel at 11am, with a reception immediately following the service, on the lawn. from 12-2pm.
