

"My Knight In Shining Armor"

You were there when I was born
You were there to walk me to school

You were there to help with my homework
Yes you were my guiding tool

You were there to kiss me goodnight

And there when I woke in the morning

And you were there to make my breakfast

And fight the battles that came without warning

And you were there for my 13th birthday

Congratulating me on being a teen

And you were when I graduated high school

Throwing the biggest party
I'd ever seen

You were there when I married my love

Wishing me a life of greatness

And it was then that I came to realize

That you didn't believe in the word lateness

For you were there in my turns of life

Yes you were there as a loving Mom

By my side in the times of hardships

And there to comfort when things went wrong
