

"The Last Goodbye"

Yes we had some times Unforgettable they surely were
And how we were so in love
And on that we'd both concur

But life is unpredictable
For sometimes it takes a turn
And not the one that comforts
But the one where we feel the burn

The burn no salve can cure Or the band-aid that cannot heal

Such was the case with us
A great love that lost its will

No will to rise again
And resurrect what was dead and gone
Because the bad out-weighed the good And the right under-weighed the wrong
