

ANN CAMPBELL FULTON

Age 74, of Goose Creek, South Carolina, passed away on Sunday, August 13, 2023.

Born on June 19, 1949, in Ford City, PA was the only daughter of the late Elizabeth Cogley (Campbell) and John Cogley.

Ann spent much of her life in the Pittsburgh area, graduating with a B.A. in Psychology from Westminister College before obtaining an M.A. in English from Duquesne University. During her college years, she traveled to Africa and Israel, and always spoke fondly of her experiences there. She enjoyed reading, cooking, and being a football mom, and she was always quick to correct her sons' grammar.

Ann moved to Goose Creek in 2017, and loved her new home and church family. She especially cherished her time volunteering at the Little Pantry.

Ann is preceded in death by James Fulton, her husband of 44 years, who passed away this past April. They were not apart for long.

Ann is survived by her sons Alex Fulton (Tara) and Kirk Fulton (Nicole), and her five grandchildren: Ronin Alexander, Levi James, Asher Marino, Lila Ariel, and Avigail Elizabeth.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, September 16 at Peace Presbyterian Church, 174 Londonderry Rd. in Goose Creek, South Carolina.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Little Pantry (<https://www.peacechurchgc.com/give>). Select 'Little Pantry' from the Donation Gift list.

Expressions of sympathy may be viewed or submitted online at palmettocs.com/.

Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to PALMETTO CREMATION SOCIETY, 5638 N. Rhett Ave., Charleston, SC 29406, 843-722-2555.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb