

ANTIONETTE ANN FRONZAGLIO

Antionette Ann Fronzaglio, age 105, from Pittsburgh, known to everyone as Toni, returned to her Lord on Monday, August 28th. Toni was born to Italian immigrants, Angelo and Rosa (LaBella) Triglia on August 21, 1918, in Clairton, PA. Toni will be remembered for her elegant outfits, gentle demeanor, love of family, and appetite for new experiences. She was preceded in death by her sons, Raymond, Ronald, and Daniel; her beloved partner, Alfred Fronzaglio; and brothers and sisters, Josephine, Mary, Jean, Ann, Joseph, Anthony, Francis, Dominick, and Roslyn. She is survived by her daughter, Denise (Jim) Rickenbrode; grandchildren, Ron Jr. (Ursula Egenhofer) Fronzaglio, and Vanessa (Logan Taylor) Rickenbrode; great-grandchildren, Emilia and Lucas Fronzaglio; friend Bettie Cinello; and nieces and nephews.

Toni served as an air raid warden during WW2, a bookkeeper at Marricini grocery store, a salesperson at La-Z Boy Furniture, and held various jobs into her 80s. Toni was president of the Valley Art Club and was often commissioned to paint portraits. She played the organ, sang in the St. Phillip's choir, and enjoyed traveling. She was involved with Sons of Italy, kept many plants, and loved animals. People were attracted to her wit, humor, and grace. She received amazing care from caregivers at Community Life, Charles Morris, and Villa St. Joseph. She was always wheeling down the halls in search of her next new adventure. In doing so, she brought smiles and laughter to the staff, who often sought her out for a visit. As a devoted Catholic, her purpose in life was to bring heaven on Earth to all who crossed her path.
