

LEAH (WAGNER) GERGER

Leah Gerger, 89, passed away peacefully on September 2, 2023, surrounded by loved ones. She was born on November 15, 1933.

Leah was a gifted homemaker and talented cook and baker who found joy in preparing her favorite recipes for her family. She was an avid reader and Jeopardy fan who also enjoyed playing bridge, bingo, and golfing weekly into her later years.

Leah and her beloved husband Jim cherished entertaining family and friends in their homes on Evans Ave and Steuben Street. Thanksgiving feasts, Christmas celebrations, and big gatherings were Leah's specialty, with guests staying late into the night.

Above all, Leah's greatest passion was her family. She delighted in bringing together her children, their spouses, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and brothers for holidays full of love and laughter that created lifelong memories.

Leah is survived by her son, Dan; his wife, Sarah; and their children, Jeffrey, Tommy, and Vanessa; son, Jeff and his wife Judy, and their sons, Sam (wife, Katie; and great-granddaughter, Lainey), Jake, and Mike; and daughter, Sue Corner, husband Derek, and their son, Adam. She will be dearly missed by all those whose lives she touched.

Relatives and friends received Thursday, September 7, 2023, from 2-8 PM at SCHEPNER-McDERMOTT FUNERAL HOME, INC., 165 Noble Avenue, Crafton. Funeral prayer Friday, September 8, 2023, at 9:15 AM at the funeral home followed by Mass of Christian at 10 AM in Saint Phillip Catholic Church, 50 W. Crafton Avenue, Crafton.
