

KENNETH J. MARX, JR.

Kenneth J. Marx, Jr., 82, of Trafford, passed away peacefully on September 6, 2023, at Redstone Highlands in Greensburg. He was the son of the late Kenneth J. Marx, Sr. and Mary (Tronka) Marx. He is survived by his very much beloved and loving wife, Kathleen (Kennedy); children, Elizabeth (Bob) Jenkins, Mary (Joseph) Potosnak, and Anthony Joseph (AJ) Marx; grandchildren, Kayla (Brian) Liszka, and John

(Jordan) Evans; and great-grandson, Sage Lizka. He graduated from North Catholic High School in 1959. Ken was a Vietnam-era veteran having served for six years in the Army and Army National Guard. He was a well-respected auto mechanic and had a Boron service station and later he had an Amoco station in Monroeville. He and his family moved to Virginia Beach in 1986. He had a small store dedicated mostly to Pittsburgh sports teams, and he was known as "The Burgh Man". While in Virginia, he became involved with veterans' activism and was a member of Rolling Thunder for many years, starting a chapter here when he and the family moved back to Pittsburgh. Ken also became a life member with Amvets in Hopewell, PA. He enjoyed golfing, camping, fishing, and many other things. He had a great fondness for American history. His favorite job and pastime was being a husband for 57 years, and he also loved being a father, grandpa, and great-grandpa. A Memorial Visitation will be held on Saturday, September 16th from 11 AM - 1 PM at the GENE H. CORL FUNERAL CHAPEL INC. AND CREMATION SERVICES OF MONROEVILLE, 4335 Northern Pike. A Blessing Service and Military Honors will follow at 1 PM. www.corlfuneralchapel.com
