

ROBERT DOUGLAS GRAHAM

Born on August 20, 1936, in Russelton, PA, and passed away on September 16, 2023, in Kennebunk, Maine after a long battle with diabetes and heart disease. Bob was 87. He graduated from West Deer High School in 1954 and studied Architecture at Kent State College in Ohio.

Bob worked for several architecture firms before starting his own firm in Sewickley, PA. His specialty was restoration and renovation. He renovated the Sewickley Borough Building as well as the Sewickley United Methodist Church. He also designed new buildings and designed one of the original subway stations in Pittsburgh, PA.

He married Mary Lind Adams on July 23, 1966, and had three daughters, Bethany, Heather and Kathryn. The family moved to Sewickley, PA where they lived for 29 years. During that time, Bob was a member of the local Mason society, the head of the local Democratic National Committee and was involved with the Sewickley United Methodist Church where he sat on many committees and sang in the choir.

After retiring, Bob spent his time collecting coin, painting, playing cards, and spending time with his family. Bob was an optimistic, giving, funny, loyal husband, father, and friend.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Mary Lind Graham; his daughters, Bethany Graham and Heather Graham of Kennebunk, ME, and Kate Heyd of Hopkinton, MA.; his grandchildren Katie Grubb, Laura McLaughlin, Megan Grubb, Abigail Heyd, Graham McLaughlin, and Robert Grubb. He also leaves behind his sister, Diane Suhevits of Pittsburgh, PA; as well as many nieces and nephews.

A service will be held at the South Congregational Church, UCC in Kennebunkport, ME on October 14 at 10 am. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Diabetes Association at diabetes.org.
