JEROME F. (JEFF) MACHAMER

Of Holley, Jerome F. (Jeff) Machamer passed away at home on Sunday, September 24, 2023. Born April 15, 1934, to Jerome and Luella Machamer of Duluth, Minnesota, he is survived by his wife Machamer Susan Hurd Holley, NY; daughters, Mary, Amy, and Molly Machamer; Annabelle grandchildren, Mannard, Amelia Sidonio Annie and James Agar; and sons-in-law, George Mannard, Joe Sidonio, and Balak (Lisabeth Control of the Control cousins, Frank (Char) and Ralph (Linda) Voris of Aurora, IL; and several nieces, nephews and cousins. He is predeceased by his mother and father; sister, Molly Evans of Duluth, MN; and cousin, Frances Voris Myers of Aurora, Jeff grew up on the Mesabi Range in northern Minnesota, which spurred his lifelong interest in earth sciences and in trains. He was a graduate of Duluth Central High School (1951), Cornell University (B.Sc., 1955), McGill University (MSc. Geology, 1959) and Pennsylvania State University (Ph.D. Geology, 1962). He served in the U.S. Army in Waukesha, WI, following which he had a long career as a professional according to the had a long career as a professional economic geologist. He was highly regarded as an expert in minerals exploration, working for organizations including IMC Global, Phelps Dodge Corporation, US Steel Corporation, Essex Minerals, Inc., and the U.S. Bureau of Mines, before becoming an international consultant.

He was a Fellow of the Geological Society of America, a Life Member and Fellow of the Prospectors & Developers Association of Canada, a Fellow of the Society of Economic Geologists, a member of the American Institute of Mining, and Petroleum Engineers and Metallurgical Buffalo Association of Professional Geologists. He was also an active Association of Professional Geologists. He was also an active supporter of community organizations, including St. Paul's Alter Guild (Duluth, MN), the St. Louis County (MN) Historical Society, and the First Presbyterian Church of Holley, NY, where he served as an elder.

Jeff was fascinated by both the natural world and the physical world. He loved nurturing his rose garden, the regal was his favority. Ho was pink Queen Elizabeth rose was his favorite. He was pirik queen Elizapeth rose was nis favorite. He was passionate about classical music, in particular Handel and Mozart, his favorite work being Handel's Messiah. He was an avid reader, devouring the Wall Street Journal from cover to cover each day, as well as Time, Smithsonian, and Trains magazines. He always enjoyed a good "yarn", especially literature, poetry, and music about real people – from Robert Service to Rudyard Kipling. He kept a copy of Birds of North America close at hand and stopped to take notice daily of the healthy that surrounded him wherever he was the beauty that surrounded him wherever he was. Jeff loved nothing more than a crisp apple, a hot fudge sundae, a slice of rhubarb pie, a warm Pendleton shirt, his beautiful family, and his beloved wife of nearly 70 years, Susie. He was humble and grateful to the end for his many blessings.

There will be no calling hours.

Family and friends are invited to attend Jeff's Memorial Service, SUNDAY OCTOBER 1, 2023 beginning at 2:30 pm in the First Presbyterian Church of Holley, 34 East Albion St., Holley, NY, 14470. Private interment will be held at the convenience of the family in Hillside Cemetery. Memorial donations may be made to the Organ Fund at the Church listed, above the Buffalo Association of Professional Geologists, P.O. Box 179, Bowmansville, NY, 14026-0179, or to the Earth and Atm. Sci Dept of Cornell University at eas.cornell.edu click on the 2020 Vision Endowment tab. Jeff's arrangements have been entrusted to the Jett's arrangements have been entrusted to the CHRISTOPHER MITCHELL FUNERAL HOME OF HOLLEY. To of please а special memory www.mitchellfamilyfuneralhomes.com.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb