TeleTracking Technologies, Inc. has an opening for Manager, Software Engineering in Pittsburgh, PA. Job duties include: Lead a software engineer team that creates the software solutions that align with TeleTracking's technical vision for improving access to patients. Have end-to-end technical ownership of a TeleTracking product including resource management and allocation and overall project management responsibilities. To apply send resume to telerecruiting@teletracking.com. Must reference job 10950.52.10