

MARGARET ROSE (CAMPANO) LUPINE

Age 80, passed away on September 23, 2023. Margie was born on February 8, 1943, to her mother Margaret Andretta, and her father, Giuseppe (Joseph) Campano, immigrants from Caserta, Italy. Her mother, unfortunately, passed away early in her life, so Margie was raised by her father, whom she loved with all of her heart. Margie graduated from Wilkesburg High School in 1961. She married Charles

A. Lupine in 1974, and they spent 41 years happily married. She retired from Magee Women's Hospital as a Unit Clerk after 43 years of service.

Margie was a devoted aunt and friend who was there in times of celebration and joy and in hard times when you needed extra love and support. Margie touched all of our lives in so many ways. She was warm, friendly, sweet, generous, and kind-hearted. She was quick to smile and made you feel loved. She was always a source of comfort and reached out to anyone in need without judgment.

Margie was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; her three sisters, Esther Rudolph, Josephine Campano, Catherine Campano; and her brother, Jimmy Campano. She is survived by nieces Deborah (William) Keegan, Diana (William) Diveglia, Dana (Michael) Futrell; and her nephew Joseph (Michelle) Fishell; nine great-nieces and nephews; nine great-great-nieces and nephews; and countless friends. She will be missed.

Friends will be received Saturday Morning, September 30th from 10 am until the service at Noon at the BOCK FUNERAL HOME, LTD., 1500 Mount Royal Blvd, Glenshaw, PA 15116.
