His Uncle Eddie passed away several years ago, but Joe remained a close and dear friend of Uncle Eddie's wife, Joan Carlton and her daughter Diane.

Dad and PapPap as he was so lovingly called, will be missed. He was kind, loving, giving and always so much fun to be around. He loved the old classic movies and music from the big band era. We celebrated every holiday and birthday with dinners, laughter, football games, golf games, bowling and Bucci ball. He also loved going to the lake to feed the geese and ducks.

His immigrant heritage is Polish, descendant of the Kukuchka genealogy when his grandmother, Maria, along with her two brothers George and Joseph Kukuchka immigrated to America in the early 1900's. He was the current patriarch of all the Kukuchka families and is survived by many Kukuchka cousins in America and Poland.
