

FRANK G. GALLA

Age 89, of Penn Hills, passed away peacefully, at St. Margaret's Hospital on Thursday, September 28, 2023, after a fall and declining heart condition. Frank is survived by his loving sister, Agnes Galla, and numerous nieces and nephews, all of whom will miss him greatly. The youngest of six children born to proud immigrants from Czechoslovakia, George and Mary Galla, Frank was preceded in death by his siblings, Ann Kanuck, Joseph A. Galla, Helen Malley, and Margaret Scott. Frank worked in the Newfield Coal Mine for 29 years, from 1956 until it closed in 1985, following in his father and brother's footsteps. He had worked on a golf course and caddied when he was in high school thus beginning his lifelong passion for golf. Forever a handsome bachelor, he also loved hunting, bowling, polka music and most of all vegetable gardening. For many, many years, he was proud to donate his zucchini and tomatoes to friends, family, and the local food bank. Friends received Sunday, October 1, 2023, 1:00-5:00 p.m. at SOXMAN FUNERAL HOMES, LTD./ROTH CHAPEL, 7450 Saltsburg Road (at Universal Road), Penn Hills. Mass of Christian Burial Monday at 11:30 a.m. at St. John the Baptist Church of Holy Family Parish. Interment in Plum Creek Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to Food Distribution Center, Penn Hills Service Association, 2519 Main Street, Pgh., PA 15235.
