Roy was a gentle giant whom everyone loved and he was a perfect husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He loved his family so much and they loved him. Roy would do anything for anyone. He enjoyed golfing, skiing, hunting, making stained glass windows and building additions on our house. Yardwork was his daily hobby. Besides meeting our friends for lunch every day to socialize, he also loved to travel with his wife 5 months out of the year. Roy loved God more than anything and now he is with Him. My darling, perfect husband and best friend: I will love you and miss you until we meet again. The Burr Family would like to thank the Critical Care ICU Unit at Magee Women's Hospital for everything that they did for Roy and for their family.
