

MARIO J. FATIGATI

Mario J. Fatigati, age 96, of Cecil, passed away peacefully Tuesday, October 3, 2023, in Friendship Village, his home for the past eight years. He was born December 9, 1926, in Pittsburgh, a son of the late Sabatino and Yolanda Corti Fatigati. Mr. Fatigati was a student at South Fayette High School and St. Vincents Prep School. After graduation, Mario had been employed at the former Universal Cyclopes

Corporation. He then joined his family in their well-known bar and grill, The White Front Restaurant in South Fayette Twp. He worked with his parents and brothers for 50 years before closing the restaurant in 1995. Fatigati's was well known for the large portions, double steaks, and delicious salads. Mario was a member of St. Mary's Church of Corpus Christy Parish in Cecil. An avid golfer, he enjoyed boating and playing cards. On June 20, 1952, he married Gloria J. Fratoni who passed away on February 11, 2012, after 58 years of marriage. Left behind to cherish his memory are his beloved children, Ava Marie Clements (the late James) of Huntersville, NC, Mario Jay Fatigati and his wife Carole of McMurray and Brian Fatigati of Orlando Florida; grandchildren, Matthew (Carla) Clements, Jeremy (Sarah) Clements, Amelia Fatigati (Robert Di Maggio), Nina Fatigati (Chris Pray), Cara Fatigati (Antonio Mendoza), Isabella and Gabriella Fatigati; and several nieces and nephews. Mario was the last of his immediate family. Deceased, in addition to his wife and parents are his dear grandson, Michael Clements who passed away on April 1, 2012; and his two brothers, Ivo and William Fatigati. Private family visitation, Catholic Blessing Services, and Interment in St. Mary's Cemetery in Cecil have been entrusted into the care of SALANDRA FUNERAL and CREMATION SERVICES, INC., Joseph P.
