He was born on November 8, 1937, in Saint Louis, Missouri, and spent his formative years in the town of Crystal City, Missouri. Nick's journey through life

dedication, and a profound commitment to his family, friends, and profession. He embarked on his academic journey at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where after spending a few years studying business he switched his major to pharmacy. He was a proud member of Alpha Phi Delta fraternity during his time on campus. It was at Duquesne that he met the love of his life, Marlayna Farulli. On January 23, 1960, they sealed their love in matrimony, embarking on a journey that would span over six decades.

Together, Nick and Marlayna were blessed with a beautiful family that included two sons, Andrew, and Nicolos, and three daughters, Anne, Marialana, and Luci-Jo. Their family tree grew even more abundant with the addition of seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Professionally, Nick and Marlayna both thrived pharmacists, owning and operating DiMaggio's Pharmacy in Pennsylvania. Nick's career in pharmacy Oakdale. also included positions Dynamic Pharmacy, J. Kane Pharmacy, Cumberland Pharmacy, John New Pharmacy, and Ted's Plaza Pharmacy.

In addition to his professional life, Nick was a member of Saint Joseph the Worker Church and a member of the Knights of Columbus 3734.

Nick's passions extended beyond his work and community involvement. He loved to hunt when his health permitted. He was also known for his winemaking skills, creating memories and toasts with every bottle. Nick was a gracious host, finding joy in entertaining and sharing camaraderie with his friends, often enjoying a good cigar and a laugh.

Nick DiMaggio was the third child of four born to Andrew and Anne Vaccaro DiMaggio. He is preceded in death by his parents and two sisters. Mary Riolo and Theresa Gleeson.
