

ANTHONY M. DELUCA

Dad, tomorrow marks one year since you left us and reunited with your beloved wife in heaven. That thought helps ease the hole in our hearts which will never fully heal. Your legacy lives on through the lessons you taught us about treating others with respect, compassion and love.

You fulfilled your desire of making a difference in life by your selfless devotion to your family, and the constituents you served so faithfully.

We love you and thank you for being the worlds greatest father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

Until we meet again, love you forever and always.
