

MACY IRVING LEVINE, M.D.

Macy Irving Levine, M.D., Pittsburgh, PA, died peacefully at home on October 7, 2023 at the age of 103. He was born in Johnstown, PA, the son of the late Elliot Benjamin and Ida (Leuin) Levine. He survived the Johnstown Flood of 1936 in Westmont. Macy came to Pittsburgh to attend the University of Pittsburgh, followed by the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine. Upon graduation, he enrolled in the United States Army and served in occupied Japan at the end of WWII. He returned to Pittsburgh after being discharged and began his esteemed career as an internist/allergist for well over 60 years. He met his beloved late wife, Evelyn (Finesman) Levine while at the VA Hospital. Macy and Evelyn were active tennis and Scrabble players, travelers, and students, always feeding their curiosity. After the untimely death of Evelyn, he spent several years with his companion, the late Alice Neft. Macy is survived by his loving children, Alan (Beth) Levine, Amy Levine, Paul (Amy Nathan) Levine, and Robert (Gili Meerovitch) Levine. He is also survived by his grandchildren, Sarah (James Petras) Levine, Hannah, Perry, and Emma Levine. He was predeceased by his sister, Sylvia Catchen.
