

JOANNE B. SERGEANT

On October 11, 2023, Joanne B. Sergeant peacefully took her final breath. She was 83 years old and lived in Butler. Born and raised in Pittsburgh, she was a daughter of the late John and Lucille Cain Rudavsky. She was the beloved wife of the late Harry Sergeant. She is survived by her sister, Sharon Ryan, of Texas; two nieces, Barbara Polahar and Monica Phillips; two nephews, Joseph Kolesar and Anthony Phillips; several great-nieces and nephews; and wonderful, caring friends who had become family. In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by one sister, Mary Lou Rudavsky Phillips, and one brother, John Michael Rudavsky. She was a member of All Saints Parish, St. Paul Roman Catholic Church for more than 30 years and for the past several years attended All Saints Parish, St. Conrad Roman Catholic Church, where she shared her beautiful voice in the church choir. Joanne was employed for more than 18 years as an administrative assistant in the office of All Saints Parish, St. Paul Church. She also served as a Eucharistic Minister and lector at St. Paul and she sang in the St. Paul Choir. Joanne also sang with the Blazing Star Choral Society, and she was a member of the Butler Outdoor Club, which she loved. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Wed., Oct. 18, 2023 at 10 a.m. from All Saints Parish, St. Conrad Roman Catholic Church, 125 Buttercup Rd., Butler. Burial will take place in Calvary Cemetery, Butler. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, 146 N. Monroe St., Butler, PA 16001, or the Little Sisters of The Poor, 1028 Benton Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15212. Arrangements by MARTIN FUNERAL HOME, INC., 429 Center Ave., Butler.
