

DAVID PHILLIP GARDNER

David passed away on October 18, 2023, after courageously dealing with Pancreatic Cancer, first diagnosed August 4, 2020. Born July 24, 1950, in Pittsburgh, PA, David had BS & MS degrees in Electrical Engineering. He worked for Eastman Kodak Company, in Rochester, NY for 37 years. David also owned and managed rental property for 35 years, especially with the help of the Rhow family.

David was predeceased by his parents, Lawren E. and Isabelle E. Gardner (the last of their two and seven respective siblings); his first partner of 17 years, Richard L. Pearlman (Rochester's Eastman School of Music Opera Director, then Chicago's Lyric Opera Director); and then his spouse of 22 years, Tim O. Mains (50-year Educator and 20-year Rochester City Council member whom David married in Canada in 2006 when NY agreed to recognize all valid same gender marriages despite not being able to license them in NY at that time). David was also predeceased by Mains family sister-in-law, Laura Canavesi.

David is survived by his brothers, Chet J. Gardner (wife Henrie), Lawren E. Gardner, Jr. (wife Katherine, aka Kitty), and Don E. Gardner.

David is also survived by in-laws of the Mains family, Steve Mains (wife Cindy Savage), Roxie McNelly (husband James). David is also survived by several nephews and nieces, as well as great-nephews and great-nieces.

David had a positive attitude and faced chemotherapy, radiation and surgeries with strength. He loved swimming and continued lap swims whenever not connected to chemo or recovering from surgeries. NY friends from Rochester, then Jamestown and Pine Bush (where his spouse, Tim, was Superintendent of the later two's respective School Districts) were his support system and endured his sense of humor whether directly or via his texting cartoons to them, as well as updates on his life. He did not subscribe to any social media but direct messaged those he knew. He was especially grateful for all the support and insightful medical advice he got from his good friends Carl and Cindy Devore during the last few years. He also often said how lucky he was to have his close friends, Gretchen and Fritz Meier in Middletown. Whether it was going out to dinner, a show, ice cream, just sitting around or having them make all the unfortunate runs to the emergency room. They were always there for him. The list of those supporting him is too long to even try to list here, but they are well aware of their connection to him.

David chose to be cremated and will be buried beside his husband Tim at Mt. Hope Cemetery.

A visitation, memorial service, and burial date will be in the Spring and announced in the future so all those who loved him can participate. Funeral services are being handled by MILLER FUNERAL AND CREMATION SERVICES, 3325 Winton Rd. South, Rochester, NY 14623-3025, url: millerfuneralandcremationservices.com, phone 585-424-3700.
