

LYDIA MONHEIM

Lydia Monheim (nee Kerr) died peacefully at Monroeville Rehab Nursing Home on Wednesday, October 25, 2023. Predeceased by her husband, Andrew Monheim in 2010. She was born in Pittsburgh and attended Keystone Oaks High School and Penn State University. Her hobbies included reading, cooking, and gardening, and her true calling in life, being a stay-at-home mom. She was the beloved mother of David Monheim; and the deeply loved sister of Robin Short of Toronto, Canada, and Deborah Pierce of Pittsburgh. She will be sadly missed by her dear friend, Shelia Marsalek-Masi; and her son, Josh. Fondly remembered by her sister-in-law, Meg Kerr of Sharon, PA; nephews, Michael Kerr of Frederick, Maryland, and Stephen Kerr of Sharon, PA; and her niece, Kimberly Brown of Erie. Also her great-nephews Matthew and Jacob Brown; and great-niece Rachel Brown, all of Erie.

Visitation is Wednesday, November 1st from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm at SOXMAN FUNERAL HOME, 7450 Saltsburg Road (at Universal Road), Penn Hills. Interment in Plum Creek Cemetery, Thursday, November 2nd at 1:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, the family gratefully requests donations to The Pittsburgh East Animal Hospital, 1718 Golden Mile Highway, Monroeville, PA 15146, phone number 724-325-2006: Pittsburgh East Animal Hospital.org.
