

BARBARA PICCOLINO

In Loving Memory of BARBARA PICCOLINO

Barbara Piccolino, a resident of McCandless Township, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Naples, Florida, peacefully passed away in her sleep on October 29, 2023. Born on July 29, 1937, in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, Barbara was the beloved daughter of Mildred Rocereta, who preceded her in death. She is now reunited with her late husband, John G. Piccolino; and departed siblings, Freddie McGarry and Betty Hammer; as well as her favorite son-in-law, Raymond Zeleny.

Barbara is fondly remembered and deeply missed by her surviving loved ones, including her daughter, Robin Zeleny of Ross Township; and her son, Randy (Maria) Gould of Chantilly, VA. She leaves a lasting legacy through her grandchildren: Lauren (James) Reik of Upper St. Clair Township, Michael (Victoria) Zeleny of Ross Township, Amanda (Ali) Jian of Leesburg, VA, and Wes Gould (Ashley Lakose) of Manassas, VA. Barbara was not just a loving and proud grandmother but was affectionately known as "Gigi" or "Barbie" to her great-grandchildren, Hudson, Mason, and Weston Reik, as well as Mila and Cameron Jian, who will hold her memory dear.

Barbara's life was marked by the countless hearts she touched and the vibrant experiences she embraced until the very end. A respected business owner, Barbara, alongside her husband John, pioneered aesthetic services in the region, leaving a lasting impact through Oakmont Skin Care and Electrolysis Day Spa in Oakmont. Beyond her professional endeavors, Barbara was an avid golfer and tennis player, relishing in a full social calendar and nurturing a passion for travel.

Arrangements to celebrate Barbara's life are under the thoughtful care of DEVLIN FUNERAL HOME, INC., located at 806 Perry Hwy., Ross Twp., 412-364-0510. In honoring her memory, private funeral services will be held exclusively for immediate family members, and Barbara will find her final resting place at the Christ Our Redeemer Mausoleum.

May Barbie's spirit continue to inspire and bring comfort to all those who knew and loved her.
