

EVELYN MAE (BECKER) LIEBERMAN

Evelyn Mae (Becker) Lieberman was born on August 11, 1925, in Manor, Westmoreland County to the late Robert and Mary Edith (Everett) Becker. After her mother died in 1934, Evelyn was raised in Jeannette by her paternal uncle James Becker and his wife, Lillian Naomi (Greenawalt) Becker.

Evelyn always excelled in her studies. She also loved playing the piano. She graduated from Allegheny College and went to the University of Kentucky for her Master's Degree. It was there that Evelyn met her husband, Irving Lieberman. Evelyn taught Science in the Pittsburgh Public School system for over 25 years. She was also a die-hard Pittsburgh Penguins fan.

She is survived by her daughter, Mary D'Abarno, and her son-in-law, Francesco; her grandson, Francesco, Jr., and his wife, Stephanie; her grandson, Joseph, and his wife, Krystal. She is also survived by two beloved half-sisters and various nieces and nephews.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her beloved son, James Irving Lieberman; her husband, Irving Lieberman; her birth parents, her stepmother, her treasured uncle and his wife, her half-brother and his wife.

At Evelyn's request, all viewing, services were private. She was privately buried next to her son and husband in Brush Creek Cemetery, Irwin. Arrangements were entrusted to the SIWICKI-YANICKO FUNERAL HOME, 23 McKrell Road, Russellton, West Deer Township. In lieu of flowers, consider sending a donation to the charity of your choice.
