

AMY LYNN HABIB

Amy Lynn Habib was a loving wife and mother, sister, aunt, and friend. She died suddenly at age 53, on Tuesday, October 31, 2023. From Marshall Township, she was the beloved wife of Dr. Gregory F. Habib; devoted mother to Gregory, Milanna, Alessandra, and Roman; loving daughter of Bonnie Brunner (the late Richard Brunner) and the late Joseph Karas (survived by Maggie Karas); sister of Jodie Karas, Michelle Karas and the late Joseph and Mark Karas; sister-in-law of Nancy Habib, Joseph Habib (Rosie), Liz Habib, James Habib (Larissa), David Habib (Linda), Peter Habib (Julianna) and George Habib (Frank); aunt of Gentry, Jack, Nicole, Kathryn, Lizzy, Peter, James, Peter Morgan, Jiavanna, Juleon, Skylar, Gia, and Ezra, and the family golden doodle Lily; she is also survived by many loving family and friends. She was a devoted mother and wife, filled with unconditional love. She was up before dawn, rousing her family for the day, and she did not stop until she kissed everyone goodnight. She believed that to give is to receive and she gave abundantly to everyone she knew. Always fashionable, she filled her home with family, music, beauty, and most of all, love. Visitation on Friday, 2-8 pm, in Our Lady of Victory Maronite Catholic Church (formerly St. Pamphilus Church), 1000 Tropical Ave., Pgh., PA 15216. Incense Service on Friday, 7:30 pm. Mass of Christian Burial on Saturday at 12 noon in Our Lady of Victory Maronite Catholic Church. Private Interment. Flower deliveries directly to the church, please. If desired, contributions can be made in her honor to Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church. Arrangements entrusted to the BRUSCO - FALVO FUNERAL HOME, INC., Mt. Washington (412-381-2323). www.bruscofalvo.com.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb