traveled to New York and attended business school while she did administrative work. She returned to Clairton in 1953. Realizing the importance of education, Linnie earned an associate degree.

She worked night shifts as a taste tester at the H. J. Heinz Company headquarters in Pittsburgh, PA. Falling asleep on the job led her to work at the J. R. Richards Company in Carnegie, PA as an assembly line worker. Linnie's "best job" was working at the United Steelworkers of America as an Administrative Assistant. She enjoyed the friendships formed and the many business trips with her husband and manager. She retired in 2003 after working 32 years.

Linnie married the love of her life, LeRoy Earl Hatcher, in 1955, and the two remained together for the next 66 years. They were the loving parents of four "beautiful" children and a nephew.

a nepnew. She fought and overcame many life battles. She recalled being the first African-American family to buy a row house in Homewood, PA in the late 1950's. The neighbors moved away the next day. In September 2022, after her husband's passing, she moved from her home, church family, and friends, and relocated to Waldorf, MD. In addition, in March 2023, she sold her Pittsburgh home. triends, and relocated to Waldorf, MD. In addition, in March 2023, she sold her Pittsburgh home. Linnie triumphed over these major life event changes and eventually became comfortabe at her new residence in Harmony at Waldorf, in Maryland. She was well known for sitting in "her" lobby chair as if she was the Harmony security/watch person. However, she never forgot her Pittsburgh friends and church family. Linnie lived a full and blessed life! She loved her children and family, meeting and talking with people, sitting on the front porch, watching endless news reports, watching her "stories" (the Young & Restless and the Bold & Beautiful), the Steelers, eating crab cakes, corn, ribs, and drinking Pepsi. She hosted many unforgettable Thanksgiving gatherings at her hoe, and it was her favorite holiday because the extended family was all together. She loved "oldie but goodies" music if it was not blaring. In her life, she would not do anything differently and her greatest influence was her momma who taught her everything. She was an extremely generous woman and she hoped that her friends would describe their relationship as nice. Her favorite pastime was relaxing, and her life philosophy was "just do right." Linnie's greatest fear of the world was that things have changed. Things aren't what they used to be, and change is not always good. good.

Linnie joined White Lily Baptist Church in 1969. She served on the Usher Board and was a Willing Workers member. She served as the annual graduation coordinator and
