

JUDY (HUNTER) WHITCOMB

Age 63, of Stowe Township, passed away peacefully at Allegheny General Hospital with her husband and brother by her side. She was born in Korea on December 4, 1959, one of two children born to the late John and Soni (II) Hunter. Judy was the beloved and cherished wife of James H. Whitcomb, whom she married on December 19, 1988. She was also the loving sister of Jack and Lois Hunter; special aunt of Garrett and Tyler (Abby) Hunter; great-aunt of Callan, Waylin, and Easton; daughter-in-law of Earl and Margaret Rothfuss. Judy was a 1978 graduate of Montour High School where she excelled in art. She was a graduate of the Pittsburgh Art Institute in Graphic Art. Her gifted profession was as a talented artist specializing in Folk Art and crafts. She attended many trade shows, some being Sugar Loaf where she was the featured artist, Penn's Colony, Gettysburg, Bedford Fall Foliage, Edison, NJ, and Roger's Ohio. Judy and her husband both attended Christ Church at Grove Farm. Please join us as we celebrate this young lady's life of creativity on Thursday, November 9, 2023, with memorial visitation from 10 AM until time of her Memorial Service at 11 AM at COPELAND'S MOON TOWNSHIP, 981 Brodhead Rd. In lieu of flowers, family suggests donations in her name, if desired, to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
