

KATHERINE S. "TIKA" DICKOS

It is with hope in the resurrection that we announce the departure from this life of Katherine 'Tika' Dickos, on Wednesday, November 8, 2023. Daughter of George Stakis and Paraskeve 'Skevo' Stakis (Haritakis) and wife of the late James Dickos. Born in Charleston, SC, and later raised in Fair Oaks, Beaver County, Tika was known for her dedication to the Greek community of Pittsburgh. After serving as a church secretary to the parish of Holy Cross Greek Orthodox Church of Pittsburgh, she was widely known for over 30 years as a travel agent to the Greek community, and founder of Tika's Tours and CTS Travel. After retiring from the travel business, she continued her service by translating and drafting Power of Attorney documents which fulfilled requirements for Greek Americans who had business with the Greek government. She also served for many years on the Arts and Letters Committee and on the New Year's Eve Dinner Dance Committees of Holy Cross Church and the Pan-Cretan Association of Pittsburgh sharing her love of both Greek and American culture with her community. Tika was a longtime patron of classical music, having subscribed to the Pittsburgh Symphony and the Pittsburgh Opera for over fifty years. She and two of her friends were honored for their love of the Symphony in an article in the Wall Street Journal and a memorable dinner with Maestro Manfred Honek.

Tika is survived by her beloved family Dn. Frank (Adrienne) Dickos; her daughter, Pamela (Peter) Countouris; and her grandchildren, Spencer (Jenna) Countouris, Dimitrios Dickos, and Makarios Dickos; and her brother, Dr. Anthony (Patricia) Stakis; and her nephew, Christopher. Tika had great love also for her husband's family including her brother and sister-in-laws and their families. It was her delight to tell hilarious stories about and to all of them.
