

JAMES G. GREB

James G. Greb, age 70, died on Sunday, November 19, 2023 after a short illness. He is survived by his wife, Karen Greb; and son, Peter Greb (Emily); and grandchildren, Julia and Connor Greb. Also by his three sisters, Mary Ann Lecci (Donald), Elizabeth Sandhagen (Harold), and Jennifer Greb. Also two brothers, Paul Greb (Susan) and Edward Greb (Susan). Nieces, Kathryn Marie Lecci, Victoria Rajaraman (Mabaran), Sarah Greb, Hannah Greb; and nephews, Matthew Greb, Adam Greb, John Lecci, and Jonathan DiFiore (Kristen).

Jim was a graduate of Duquesne University. Initially, he had a broadcast journalism career with WDUQ radio (now WESA), KQV news radio, and as a Pittsburgh correspondent for NPR and Physicians Radio Network. He then began his second career as a paramedic starting with Medical Rescue Team South and then for over 30 years with the city of Pittsburgh as a crew chief.

Jim was a knowledgeable man of many interests from world affairs and government to space, aviation, the military, science, medicine, automobiles, and classic films. He could carry on a discussion with anyone with both deep insight and also a sense of humor. He was an accomplished cook who created numerous healthy delicious meals including many years of Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners for up to 30 family members. He was a very devoted husband, father, grandfather, and cherished friend of many people throughout his life.

Memorial Service on Saturday, December 2, 2023 at 11:30 AM at Rico's Restaurant 1 Rico Lane, Pgh., PA 15237. Contributions can be made to Light of Life Rescue Mission (give.lightoflife.org) or the Gary Sinise Foundation (garysinisefoundation.org). Arrangements by JOHN A. FREYVOGEL SONS, INC. (freyvogelfuneralhome.com).

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb