As a young mother, she attended beauty school in Pittsburgh. After graduating, she opened Loretta's Beauty Shop in her home where she spent many years working but still able to be home for her kids. She also was a rep for Sarah Coventry Jewelry going into homes with her jewelry case.

She was a Girl Scout leader, a founding member of St. Richard's Catholic Church where she was involved with Christian Mothers as well as being a Eucharistic Minister. When Loretta became involved in a project, she was "all in". She painted and collected dolls and had a room dedicated to just dolls. She also loved her poodles. She hand made many beautiful quilts for her family as well as hand painted pictures. She loved gardening and was talented in flower arranging.

Loretta and Marc were married 65 years. They enjoyed dressing up every Saturday night to go dancing with their many friends. Every winter after they retired, they traveled in their motor home to Arizona with friends or to Myrtle Beach. After they sold their home in Gibsonia, which was on the same property as Ranalli's Drive-In, they moved to Rock Lake in Zelenople, where they became close friends with other retirees.
