

ALICE EILEEN LoBIANCO

Of Plum, surrounded by her family on November 23, 2023. Beloved wife to Robert LoBianco. Loving mother to Mark LoBianco, Michele (Dave) Mead, Matthew LoBianco. Adoring grandmother to David, Eric, and Jonathan Mead. Sister to the late Shirley and Jeanie, as well as many other nieces, nephews and cousins. Eileen's expansive circle of friends attests to her warm and welcoming nature, as she effortlessly cultivated connections that lasted a lifetime. Devoted to her two sisters, Eileen cherished the bond they shared, finding solace and joy in their unbreakable sisterhood. Her love story with her husband was nothing short of extraordinary. Seeking prayers to the Blessed Mother, in a divine twist of fate, Robert's unwavering devotion was met with the best gift – a fulfilling job where he not only found professional success but also discovered the love of his life, Eileen, creating a bond that transcended time and brought immeasurable joy to both their lives. Together, they crafted a perfect relationship that was the envy of all who knew them. Eileen's days were spent wrapped in the warmth of their companionship, a testament to a love that endured the tests of time. Her heart expanded further with the arrival of grandchildren, who were the apple of her eye. Eileen's sweet tooth was legendary, with cookies and cakes being her irresistible indulgences. A fan of Pittsburgh sports, she reveled in the victories and rallied through defeats, displaying an unwavering loyalty to her beloved teams. Card games and family gatherings were elevated by Eileen's culinary prowess. A great cook, she filled the home with the aroma of love and laughter, creating memories that will linger on. Eileen's wit and sense of humor brightened even the darkest days, leaving an indelible mark on those fortunate enough to share in her company. Family and friends welcome Monday, 4-8 PM WILLIAM SLATER II FUNERAL SERVICE, 1650 Greentree Rd, Scott Twp., 15220. Funeral Mass Tuesday, 10 AM in St. Margaret of Scotland Church, St. Raphael the Archangel Parish. Entombment to follow in Queen of Heaven Cemetery.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb