

Young & Wild & Free

Yes it was you and me
So young & wild & free
Not a problem or care in the world And high school lovers were we

The movies on a friday night
The high school car washes too Passing notes in the middle of class Eating lunch in the cafeteria with you

The Proms when we dressed to the nines And the dancing till the cows came home
And of course sneaking out to the car
So our wine wouldn't feel so alone

And how we vowed to marry someday
And have our own little house with kids
But as we know those high school days
Sometimes turn out to be fibs

Nonetheless they are memories to stand
And we will never forget those days
Of two young lovers in love Going through a wonderful phase
