

MARGARET (DeMARCO) KRAWCZYNSKI

In loving memory of Margaret Krawczynski born Margaret DeMarco October 31, 1933, and departed from this world on December 5, 2023. Margaret, known affectionately as Margie, was a cherished soul, originally from East Carnegie, Pennsylvania. The beloved daughter of Peter and Frances DeMarco. Margie's life was a tribute to love and family. She found her lifelong companion in Chester, and together they embraced the joys and challenges of raising their four daughters, Bernadine, Fran, Susie, and Gloria. They lived in Heidelberg and attended St. Ignatius Church, and retired to Lighthouse Point, Florida. Margie now joins Chester and their eldest daughter, Bernadine, in Heaven. Margie possessed a radiant beauty that was matched only by her intelligence and outspoken vibrant spirit. Her wit and laughter echoed through the lives of those fortunate enough to know her, leaving an indelible mark of joy. She had a heart of service, dedicating much of her life to the restaurant industry. Margie's influence extended beyond her own tables as she mentored and trained servers, eventually becoming the esteemed head waitress at the Carnegie Red Bull and its affiliate franchises. Her passion for service continued at Wrights Seafood Inn in Heidelberg, where she shared her expertise and warmth, and where both colleagues and patrons became lifelong friends and family. Her dazzling smile and stunning beauty turned heads and people were attracted to her wherever she went. Her legacy lives on through the countless individuals she guided, served and inspired throughout her life. Margie is survived by her daughters, Fran (John) Flynn, Susan (Irv) Goldstein, Gloria (Mike) Riedl, and Bernadine's husband, Tim McMahon, who carry forward the torch of her love. Her memory is further cherished by her grandchildren, Stephanie Goldstein, Alex (Aileen) Goldstein, Doug (Nikki) McMahon, Michael (Monica) McMahon and Brian (Katy) McMahon; and her six great-grandchildren, Adeline, James, Ethan, Jude, Adia and Ian Chester. They stand as a testament to the enduring impact of Margie's love across generations. She is survived by her beloved brother, Jimmy DeMarco of Vero Beach, FL. And joins her deceased siblings, Nancy, Anthony, Russell, Sara, and Nancy. In this time of loss, may we find solace in the laughter and lessons she gifted us, the love she shared, and the enduring legacy of a life well-lived. Margie's memory will forever be etched in the hearts of all her nieces, nephews, cousins, and all who had the privilege of being touched by her warmth, kindness and humor.
