

WALTER (HARTUNG) HART

Walter Hart died on December 2, 2023 in West Palm Beach, Florida.

Walter was born on December 28, 1955, in Pittsburgh, PA, and later moved to Tampa, Florida. He attended St. George Catholic School through middle school, then transferred to Keystone Oaks High School when his family moved to Dormont, and graduated in 1973.

He enlisted in the United States Marine Corps and served our country before going to Penn State University to earn his B.S. in Microbiology, and after receiving his Medical Technology license through Allegheny General Hospital. He worked as a Medical Technologist for 37 years, until his retirement at age 65.

Walter was a lover of the outdoors. He especially enjoyed Tidioute, PA, and would travel there often. He also enjoyed fishing, exploring the Florida Everglades, hiking, swimming, and Ballroom Dancing,

Walter was preceded in death by his father, Walter A. Hartung; his mother, Rita (Sekinger) Hartung; and his sister, Barbra Ann Capizzi. He is survived by his loving brothers and sisters, Stephen Hartung (Dawn), Kathleen Gruber (Robert), Judith Fischer (Harold), and Timothy Hartung (Mayra). He also has many nieces, nephews, and great-nieces and nephews who brought him much joy.

Walter will be missed by all and will be honored with full Military Honors in a ceremony in South Florida National Cemetery in early 2024.

Walter was a child of God.
