

PAULA "BING" MILLER

"What you are is God's gift to you. What you make of yourself is your gift to God."

Paula "Bing" Miller completed her work here on Earth on December 27, 2023 after the most courageous battle with several rare forms of cancer. Let's be very clear though...she didn't "lose" her battle with cancer... she wouldn't even let her grandkids win in a game of cards.

Known by Bing to most, and Binny to her grandkids/family, Paula Miller was a true one of a kind. Born April 3, 1940, to Paul and Luella Benthin, she was forever the optimist, who was treasured for her ability to speak wisdom and love to those who needed it and was gifted in her ability to talk sense into just about anyone she met.

Eager for a good adventure, and always ready with her "purse in her lap," Binny could often be found with her sister, Carole Clark, walking laps around the neighborhood, the park, or lounging by the pool. She loved a good trip through the discount racks at Kohl's and had a knack for finding the "best deals." Bing also loved the beach, and was blessed with a year-round, sun-kissed tan. She couldn't wait for her "girls" beach trips, and her lifelong friends who made the yearly trek.

Survived by her high school sweetheart, Bill Miller, the two were inseparable until the very end. They met while at Bellevue High School in the 50s and shared 64 years of marriage.

Bing is also survived by her daughter, Kelly Kleber (David); and her son, Mike Miller (Kristin), who were by her side through thick and thin. She talked constantly about how proud she was of the people they became, and the amazing families they raised.

Her grandchildren, Mike Kleber (Maggie), Megan and Maddie Miller were her life.

One of God's greatest callings for Paula was her role as "Binny" (her well-deserved "grandma" name). Binny loved nothing more than being present in her grandkid's lives, and rarely missed a special occasion. She adored sleepovers, soccer games, and watching "her girls," Megan and Maddie grow up. She was always so proud of their accomplishments. She also loved long talks on the phone with her grandson, Mike, and the many years' worth of Thursday nights that she got to spend with him as a kid. She was also elated to meet her first great-grand-daughter, Emmelyn, this year, and beamed with joy when she was around.

Whether you called her Paula, Bing, or Binny, your experience was the same, and you felt the same love as anyone else who knew her. As a result, she is survived by so many special people, including many nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Please join her family and friends in celebrating her incredible life at the Treesdale Community Center, 1 Treesdale Commons, Gibsonia, PA 15044 on January 5, 2024 from 4-7pm, with a blessing at 5:00 pm by Reverend Dr. Cindy McClung. Bing didn't like sadness at funerals, so come prepared with your happiest memories and stories to share with family and friends.

Bing's family would like to express a special thank you to Dr. David Friedland and the team at the Hillman Cancer Center, as well as the incredible team from 6 PAV at UPMC Passavant who provided her incredible care. Donations in her memory can be made to the Hillman Cancer Center.
